

Dear All,

I hope you are all doing well.

For those of you using the OpenReview system for the first time, I have outlined the detailed procedure below for locating your assigned submissions, downloading the pdf, and uploading your reviews.

Step 1: Login your OpenReview account <https://openreview.net/login>
